

Posted: April 8, 2015

ALCDSB Shines at the Limestone Skills Competition

Congratulations to all our participants and winners at the 2015 Limestone Skills Competition. This year ALCDSB competed in elementary and secondary skills challenges. From here students have qualified for the Ontario Technological Skills Competition which will take place in May. Our congratulations to all students and thanks to all staff for their dedication to this program.

Nicholson Catholic College

Kessler Sorenson, NCC (silver in Automotive Technician)

Tyson Chute, NCC (silver in Culinary)

NCC's other competitors: Chantel Ossanna (Hairstylist) (4th place in a large field of competitors)

Ethan Thur (Automotive Technician)

St. Paul Catholic Secondary School

Jocelyn Page (bronze in Hairstyling)

St. Theresa Catholic Secondary School

Darius Molenkamp (bronze in Culinary)

Holy Cross Catholic Secondary School

Felicity Stroman (Graphic Design - Studio - Gold)

Claudia Pawlak (Photography) - Gold

Justine Gilholm (Prepared Speech) - Silver

Katie Cross and Harmony Holland - (TV & Video Production - team of 2) - Silver

Nick Vosburgh (Website Development) - Silver

Riley Richmond (Workplace Safety) – Gold