

Posted: December 10, 2014

Students help spread Christmas joy

The Holy Name Catholic School Eco Team and Student Council put their faith in action by organizing an Advent Toy and Book Drive. Donations were collected from the school community for two weeks and sent to the St. Vincent de Paul Society, who will give the toys and books to boys and girls in the Kingston community who will benefit most this Christmas season.