

Posted: November 11, 2014

Students learn the act of Remembrance

Students in the Algonquin and Lakeshore Catholic District School Board got a lesson in Remembrance during a Service of Remembrance held at Cataraqui Cemetery, Canada's oldest active military cemetery. Students are St. Marguerite Bourgeoys Catholic School, Archbishop O'Sullivan Catholic School, Holy Family Catholic School and St. Paul Catholic School along with other school students placed Canadian flags on the graves of the hundreds of veterans buried there. They then attended a Service of Remembrance along with veterans and serving men and women of the Canadian Forces, Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Royal Military College of Canada and the Royal Canadian Legion.