

Posted: October 31, 2014

Catholic school students provide a Thriller in Market Square

Kingston's historic downtown Market Square was turned into a ghoulish dance studio when more than 120 Algonquin and Lakeshore Catholic School students took over the Square in a flash mob and performed Michael Jackson's Thriller.

Click here to see the video!

The Holy Cross Catholic Secondary School Crusaders have been busy working on an elementary outreach project promoting the importance of community building through the arts. The Grade 10 Dance Class, in collaboration with the Specialist High Skills Major communication technology students, created dance tutorial videos on "How to Dance Michael Jackson's Thriller". The tutorial videos were used as a learning tool for our Catholic elementary schools and community members where we collaborated on a board-wide flash mob!

The flash mob was a huge success, bringing together over 120 ghost participants and their families. The Crusaders and their elementary school counterparts came together in Kingston's Market Square to perform Thriller with costumes and creativity! The SHSM students set up seven cameras along the downtown area, as the dance class took their opening positions. The arts and communications technology departments look forward to working together on future projects, finding ways to build meaningful relationships within the community.