

Posted: October 9, 2014

Our Catholic schools welcome the world!

Albert College in Belleville hosted a welcome night for International Students from schools in the Quinte region. Chair Tom Dall, Superintendent of School Effectiveness Terri Slack, Vice-Principal Patrick Rapp and Supervisor of International Education Madeleine O'Connor posed for a photo with some of the students from the Algonquin and Lakeshore Catholic District School Board. There are 34 International Students from seven countries attending our Catholic schools. At right, Aboriginal Elder Bernard dances during the traditional drum song.