

Posted: September 29, 2014

J.J. O'Neill choir sings at hockey home opener

A group of 20 students led by teachers Steve Kennedy and Laura Gowsell had the thrill of a lifetime when they sang the National Anthem before a sold-out crowd at the recent home opener for the Kingston Frontenacs. They were accompanied by student guitarist Edmund Hetke.